Caraway Street is a ministry that meets in a theater right outside the worship center. Our teaching methods are similar to Sesame Street, utilizing the Bible along with puppets, skits, music, repetition, and characters such as Gil Fishman, Mr. and Mrs. Garcia, Dr. Magical, Max the taxi driver, a talking baby named Harry, and many others. Kids learn their books of the Bible, 10 commandments, memorize a verse for every letter of the alphabet, fruits of the Spirit, how to become a Christian and how to be a disciple so they can lead their friends to Jesus. Each week's lesson builds upon the next, so it is important that kids attend faithfully.

At Caraway Street, we take our responsibility of sharing the good news of Jesus seriously. Our ministry team is motivated by the realization that children are of special significance to God, and therefore of special significance to each of us. The excerpt below—taken from The Barna Group—gives each of us a passion of urgency to reach out to families in our community.

"A person's moral foundations are generally in place by the time they reach age nine. While those foundations are refined and the application of those foundations may shift to some extent as the individual ages, their fundamental perspectives on truth, integrity, meaning, justice, morality, and ethics are formed quite early in life. After their first decade, most people simply refine their views as they age without a wholesale change in those learnings."

Wow! That reminds us of the importance of teaching our kids about Jesus and helping them build a relationship with him. The Caraway Street ministry team wants to partner with you in your child's Christian education! Hope to see your family Sunday evenings at Peace Church.
