Rebellion is Coming
2 Thess 2

MAIN
IDEA

When the rebellion comes, truth will not be tolerated

1. The rebellion is coming, yet we can be discerning

We often say that we are ready for the day that Christ returns and for the days beforehand when rebellion takes over. But we often neglect our Bibles and the gathering of God's people, which means we very well might be caught off guard.

2. The rebellion is powerful, and it will be dominating

It will be a strong movement against God, something attractive that draws in the masses. "The man of lawlessness" is against the law of God, and he placed himself above every other god and place of worship.

3. The rebellion will be demonic, but it will be destroyed.

The world we are living in now should cause us to take our lives seriously. And though we are concerned, we have the ultimate hope in Jesus, who will blow away the antichrist like chaff in the wind!

4. The rebellion is attractive, although it will be deceptive.

God will give people what they want- if they want to reject God and truth and give themselves over to unrighteousness, they will be allowed to have it. And soon they will know that it was all lies.

Jesus is calling us to himself, will you hope in him and stand firm, or give yourself over to the rebellion?
